Weaver's Store started as a little country store in the village of Fivepointville in 1957 when Irvin and Ruth sold used clothing in the basement of their house. Before long, the Weavers outgrew their little shop, and in 1959 added new merchandise and moved to the south side of town. Several additions have taken place since then. Today, Weaver's offers a great selection of shoes, archery, fabric, housewares, hardware and clothing. They have earned a reputation for quality merchandise with low prices, great selections and friendly hometown service.

The Weaver family gives all the credit to the Lord for their business success and a good supportive team of employees. Weaver's Store appreciates each customer and thanks you for your patronage.
